LANTHORN

for the class of 1969

Susquehanna University

Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania

Dedicated to

Mr. Alfred J. Krahmer

and

Mr. Warren J. Pirie

"You give but little when you give

of your possessions.

It is when you give of yourself

that you truly give."

To the student at Susquehanna scholarship is a key which unlocks the past, the present and the future. As each student goes forward toward his goal, there are people to whom he must turn for aid and guidance. It is for this reason that we dedicate the 1969 LANTHORN to Mr. Alfred J. Krahmer and Mr. Warren J. Pirie. Both men have made great contributions toward the furtherance of university achievement in scholarship.

Mr. Krahmer has been librarian at Susquehanna since 1960. He is a graduate of Wagner College and received his Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. He also holds a diploma from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia and a Master of Library Science from Rutgers University. Presently, Mr. Krahmer chairs the library committee which is formulating plans for the new library.

A graduate of Susquehanna, Mr. Warren Pirie holds a Master of Science degree from Bucknell University. He has been a member of the faculty since 1959 and is currently an assistant professor of psychology. Mr. Pirie also holds the position of university psychologist. It is within this capacity that many students come to him for guidance.

OPENING CONVOCATION

"Opening Convocation on Septebmer 15 was the occasion for conferral of honorary degrees on Shelton Fisher, president of McGraw Hill, Inc., New York publishers, doctor of laws; and E. Dorothy Dann Bullock of Canton, Pa., a national leader in music education, doctor of humane letters. Dr. Fisher delivered the convocation address marking the beginning of Susquehanna's 111th academic year."

LEADERSHIP

"Approximately 65 students, faculty, and administrators joined thoughts and efforts to produce an extremely constructive Leadership Conference. From Friday evening until Sunday afternoon, the group met to consider the powers and limitations of power exercised by students, faculty, and administrators at Susquehanna."

Three keynote speakers, Paula Weiss Traher, Judy Billman, and Rick Hesel, spent Friday night reviewing the past, recent progress and problems, and possible future ideas of Susquehanna.

"In the opinion of Kathy Franke, co-chairman of the Leadership Agency, 'Every conference has been valuable in some way or another, but this year the main emphasis will be placed, not only on the constructivism of the Conference itself, but on continuing the spirit of the Conference.'"

First Row: J. Yennie, J. Billman, K. Franke, J. Schubert. Second Row: M. Hoover, D. Hesel, F. Jellinghaus, R. Chestnut.

GUSTAVE W. WEBER, President

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SENIOR CLASS:

You have now achieved a college education, one of the greatest possessions anyone can have. Only one out of fourteen people over twenty years of age in this country has a college degree, so you have become members of a very select group.

You have obtained these degrees at a time when significant world history is being made. Not only is this one of the most challenging and dangerous times for free peoples, but also one of the most interesting and exciting times yet known to mankind.

Because of your education you are well equipped to accept the challenge of these days, and to do your part in strengthening America as a symbol of freedom for men everywhere and as a leader among the nations of the world. America's greatest strength is her educational system. This strength is meaningless except as those who benefit from its highest levels use their education to save the causes of freedom, for without this we as a nation shall have little else of real importance.

We pray that wherever your paths may lead God will go with you, that you will find your Susquehanna years to have been fruitful in providing you with knowledge and skills by which you can serve your fellows and by giving you the innner resources of personal worth and dignity, confidence in the ultimate decency of life, faith in the possibilities of tomorrow and in the significance of your contribution to its needs–all of it undergirded by a firm and unshakeable conviction that the God who made himself known in Jesus Christ is a God who makes all things new, who has placed at our disposal the capacity to renew and reshape our world, and that He moves through history by way of our lives toward the fulfillment of His purposes and the enrichment of mankind.

Let us ever remember that freedom cannot long be enjoyed by the careless, the indifferent, the irresponsible. Freedom is only for those who have the vision and the courage to deserve it.
